AREA OVERVIEW

3535 Hayden Avenue is located in Culver City's most celebrated creative office district, and one of the most architecturally distinct commercial neighborhoods in Los Angeles. What began as a mid-century industrial corridor was gradually reimagined over three decades by Eric Owen Moss Architects and developer Samitaur Constructs into a campus of converted warehouses and bold new structures that has become a genuine destination for media, technology, and entertainment companies.

3535 HAYDEN AVENUE

Surrounded by marquee media and tech neighbors—Apple, Amazon Studios, Nike, HBO, Sony Pictures Animation, and Warner Bros—with Zoic, Jam City, and Scopely nearby, this Westside creative district (800,000+ SF) attracts companies for UCLA/USC talent, Silicon Beach access, and a highly walkable environment. Dining and retail standouts include Michelin-starred Vespertine, Destroyer, the Culver City Farmers Market, Platform, Cognoscenti Coffee, and Culver Steps, with a nearby Whole Foods at La Cienega & Jefferson serving as an amenity hub. Connectivity is exceptional via the Metro E Line, I-10/I-405, and the Ballona Creek bike path, reinforcing Culver City's status as a leading office submarket.
